ABOUT THE CERTIFICATION

AMRAS publishes details of the names, countries and date of qualification of Certificate of Completion (CCT) leading to award of certification to individual surgeons.

Surgeons who receive CCT award and qualification are fully qualified doctors who have passed all requirements, prescribed examinations and training criteria of AMRAS.

The award of the CCT is a mark of qualification that implies a doctor/surgeon is certified by the AMRAS Accreditation Board and training committee, to be competent as a primary surgeon in the particular procedure. CCT qualified surgeons are expected to continue contributing to the field via research, academia and maintain a high standard of practice in accordance to AMRAS standard & values.

This list is provided for the benefit of the public, so that the relevant bodies/authorities/general public may check the status of their respective Gynae-MIS surgeons and be reassured that their attending doctor/physician is indeed certified competent in a particular MIS procedure, having gone through the rigorous training process and selection of AMRAS.
